Playford Lakes Newsletter

Committee Chatter

Over the past couple of months we have had a few new members join Playford Lakes Golf Club. Also on Wed afternoons over the same period I have been hosting 8-10 Playford Council Employees a 9 hole hit and giggle. The response from the employees playing has been very positive about what they see and experience out on the course. The skill set amongst the group is varied with some being very occasional golfers and others who are well advanced and are now seeking to join the club. One such member is Kyle Andrews whom recently joined and is currently playing for his handicap. Any golfers from the club interested with popping out for a hit with these guys are more than welcome. The more we can make these guys comfortable the greater chance they will join.

Its great to see new faces at the club. Please make time to introduce yourselves. If you know a golfer and they don't have a home bring them along to our club.

Here's some of our newest members -

Nicole Clark, Deane Tucker, Dylan Powell, Kyle Andrews. Some of these players have already qualified for their handicaps, some are still in the process.

The Festive Season

Playford Lakes Golf Club Committee would like to wish all of its Members & their families & our Club Sponsors a

Merry Christmas & a Happy New Year

Presentation Night

The Presentation Night was a great success. First time being held at Centrals, the food was good, held on a Sat night and not having to worry about work the next day (for those of us still working), plenty of medal winners and lots of raffle prizes made it a fun night.

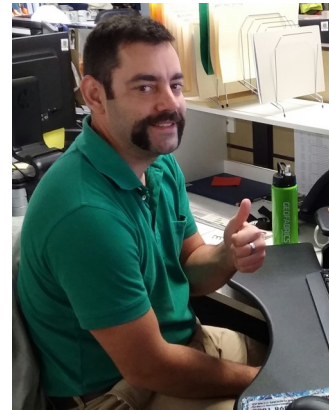

The Committee is already thinking of ways to improve next years presentation night.

A big thankyou to the Committee for a job well done.

Thanks for the Welcome, I saw my mug on the club facebook page. My Grandfather taught me to play when I was around 10 years old but after that I didn't really play again until my early 20s when I was at university. Since then it's been on and off a handful of times per year but I've always wanted to play more regularly. I've never been a member of a club but now that I'm working at Playford it's great to have the course 10 minutes up the road so I can play mid-week after work. Guy started taking a few of us out there on Wed in Oct so I decided to join up and go more often. Really enjoyed my first Saturday out there just recently too. I live in Walkley Heights so not really local but not too far away.

Master Class

Drinks were proudly sponsored by:

Controversy during the Ambrose competition a few weeks ago.

During a normal round of golf where you are playing in a group of four, you pair off to mark each others score card. So when someone does an Airy, that's a free drink to the person marking their card.

However during the Ambrose competition it's a group of four with only one card being used. So when someone does an Airy it's a free drink to everyone.

We won't use his real name, so lets pretend his name is, say.....Stephanno .

So Stephanno swings and misses the ball. I must say it was a huge Airy, missed it by 6 inches. I'm pretty excited by this, "free drinks boys!!" But Stephanno says "No, it's the maker of the card that gets the free drink"

So who is marking the card, yep, Stephanno is. "oh, I'm marking the card" he says, "so I guess I'll be buying myself a drink"

Here's a picture of Stephanno after we belted him a few times with our clubs.
